U7, U9 and U11 play 2 times 20 minutes each.

U13, U15, U17 and U19 play 2 times 25 minutes each.

Two days before the start of the tournament, the organizing committee will announce the official game times for each category. This information will be communicated in game schedules, which will be published in www.alianzadefutbol.com

The official game times and schedules may vary if the tournament is delayed.

The referee is responsible for communicating the teams if the game time has been modified. The referee will communicate it prior to the start of the game if it is the case.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

The official game times and schedules may vary if the tournament is delayed. The referee is responsible for communicating the teams if the game time has been modified. The referee will communicate it prior to the start of the game if it is the case.

The referee and the Organizing Committee will be responsible for communicating if the game schedule of any match was modified. The referee will be the only authority in the tournament that will decide the added time per game.

For punctuality purposes, teams must report to the registration tent 1 hour and half in advance before the start of their first game match.

The central referee can give up ten (10) minutes tolerance if a team does not present the minimum number of players to start a match. The tolerance time will not be replenished. A team can start playing a game with a minimum of 7 players on the field, including goalkeeper.

If passing the extension period of ten (10) minutes, the referee can end the match and give the victory by default to the team that was present, with at least 7 players. The losing team will have no sanction in the tournament, and the team that won by default will earn 3 points for the match.

Lineup

The number of players that may line up on the court for children ages U7, U9, U11 It depends on the rules of each city. In the categories U13, U15 U17, U19, each team will have to line up at least 7 players on the court for the match.

On the bench and team sideline, ONLY the remaining players on the roster can be present along with two (2) registered members of the Coaching Staff.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

If a team loses a match by default, the organizing committee will determine whether the team will be invited for next year.

Young girls will be allowed to play one year above their division (Example: if the division is 2007 the girl of the year 2006 can play).

Player Substitutions

Any player who has left the court as part of a replacement may reenter the field during the rest of the game.

Changes are not limited during the course of the game.

The referee is the only one with the authority to prohibit changes of players. This could happen if the referee considers that certain team is taking advantage of the remaining game time.

Uniforms and Equipment

All teams must register with the Organizing Committee, the color of the uniforms to be used in the tournament. The uniform consists of: jersey, shorts, socks, shin guards and soccer shoes.

All uniform must have, on the back of the jersey, a unique number that will be assigned to each player of the team. Players with missing numbers or repeated numbers will not be allowed to participate during the game.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

In case of any violation of this rule, it is not necessary to stop the game and:

- The referee will order the player to leave the field of play to put his equipment in order;
- The player will leave the field when the game is stopped, unless the equipment has already been corrected.

A player who leaves the field to correct or change his equipment must:

- Submit the equipment to the control of a member of the arbitration team before being able to re-enter;
- Re-enter only with the permission of the referee (which can be granted during the game).

Note: This infraction will NOT be taken into account to disqualify the team or lose the game, only the referee will give the instruction to remove the player from the field, if the equipment is corrected and if it is the case he can enter the game again .

The use of shin guards is mandatory for all players during Alianza de Fútbol tournaments. Without adequate protection, participation can be denied to players. Players that do not have shin guards are prohibited from entering the field.

The referee will determine whether the uniforms from both teams pose confusion: in terms of color. In this case, the referee will change jerseys or will ask the players to use color vests that will be defined through a coin toss. In Copita Alianza there is no home team or visitor team.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

Game Balls

Each team will have to present at least 2 balls in good condition and approved by the central referee.

Categories U7, U-9 and U-11 will use a ball number 4.

Categories U13, U15, U17 and U-19 will use ball number 5.

The organizing committee will award a soccer ball to each finalist. It is mandatory that this ball is used in the final game.

If teams fail in presenting the awarded soccer balls, the referee will not begin the match until the two finalists present their game soccer balls

Hydration

It is recommended that all players, families and assistants bring water and hydration during the tournament days.

The tournament will provide hydration stations for participants, but it is not responsible for dehydration consequences.

It is recommended that each player make hydrate at least 3x during a match.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

If teams make the decision to stay in the tournament until the rescheduled date, Alianza de Futbol, will keep their place in the tournament and registration fee.

If the tournament is not scheduled on another date, teams will have the right to maintain their registration for the following year. If teams make the decision to withdraw from the tournament, Alianza de Futbol will refund the registration fee within 30 working days. If teams make the decision to stay in the tournament until the rescheduled date, Alianza de Futbol, will keep their place in the tournament and registration fee.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

If the tournament is not scheduled on another date, teams will have the right to maintain their registration for the following year. If teams make the decision to withdraw from the tournament, Alianza de Futbol will refund the registration fee within 30 working days.

Protests

Game conduct is under the jurisdiction of the referee and the tournament will not overrule a referee's decision. All disputes off the field of play will be settled by the Tournament Director or by his designee and the decision will be final.

Protests are an instrument in which coaches can prove that the players on the opposing team were lined up in a fraudulent manner.

The deadline to file a protest will be before the end of the first half of the match in protest.

If a team wants to move forward with a protest, a member of the official coaching staff on the roster will need to speak directly to the referee after the game to move forward with the protest.

The protest must be submitted at the registration tent to the Organizing Committee.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

Process for protest:

THE ONLY PEOPLE WHO MAY FILE A PROTEST WITH THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE WILL BE THE ONLY 2 REGISTERED COACHING STAFF LISTED ON THE OFFICIAL ROSTER.

After filing and paying for the protest before the end of the first half of the protested match, the protested team will have 10 minutes to present the documents.

If the protested team does not present documents and evidence within 10 minutes they will lose the game and the other team will be earn 3-0 lead. The protested team will automatically lose the points gained in that game and will be expelled from the tournament without a refund and banned from future tournaments.

This resolution will be released only to members of the coaching staff of both teams.

Every complaint must be filed through a letter signed by the coach or assistant team, along with any relevant evidence to justify his argument.

The coach must give a deposit of $ 100.00 in cash for each protest. If the protest is confirmed then the $ 100.00 deposit will be returned. If the protest does not proceed, the resolution will be only given to members of the coaching staff of both teams and the deposit will be given as donation to the Access U Foundation: <https://www.accessufoundation.com/>

For each protest the $ 100.00 deposit should be paid in cash. Each protest cost $100.00, if you protest one or more player, the cost of the protest increase proportionally to the number of players protested. Example: (1) a player protested have a cost of $ 100.00. Two players protested have a cost of two hundred dollars $ 200.00. Three players protested have a cost three hundred $ 300.00 and so on.

If the protest is considered inaccurate, misleading, or lacking of evidence to reach implement disciplinary action, the deposit will not be refunded. We will not review any video or photography to support any protest, objection, complaint or matter of judgement.

Protests will only be considered if related to the Official Regulations of the tournament.

Interpretation of the Official Regulations will not be considered as protest

No match will be repeated, reprogrammed, or any action that alters the established tournament schedules will be implemented.

All decisions made will be made to protect the interests of the tournament and the Organizing Committee and may not be appealed.

Disqualification of the team in the tournament

The list below outlines the cases when the Organizing Committee has the power to permanently expel teams that do not comply with the regulations, such expulsions are not entitled to refund of registration fees and banned from future tournaments.

ALIANZA DE FUTBOL®

1.-Violent attitudes

- a) Teams initiate provocations resulting in fights on the field. This will be discussed through an investigation, this decision given the circumstances could disqualify elimination one or both teams involved depending the outcome of the investigation. The decision is final and cannot be appealed.
- b) Physical assault on refereeing body or any staff member of Alianza de Futbol.
- c) All spectators are to be on the opposite side of the field from the Team Benches. In the spirit of sportsmanship, we ask spectators to be on the same half as their team “mirroring” their team and that spectators do not intermingle with each other. No spectators are allowed on the team side of the field.

2.- Fraud

Is considered as fraud:

A team that tries to use players that have not been officially registered in the tournament will automatically be expelled from the tournament without the rights to a registration payment reimbursement and will be banned from future tournaments.

Forgery of official documents or use of false identity is a crime and could resort to legal claims.

General Provisions

The body responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of this regulation is the Organizing Committee. The Organizing Committee will have the power to resolve cases not covered by these regulations.

All referee decisions are considered final. Red cards and ejections will not be rescinded.
